5. On September 15, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), Purdue Pharma L.P. (“PPLP”) and its affiliates that are debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) each commended with the Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered for procedural purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

6. The Ad Hoc Committee formed prior to the Debtors' bankruptcy filings to facilitate the negotiation of a settlement structure for a comprehensive resolution of litigation concerning the Debtors' opioid businesses. Prior to the Debtors' bankruptcy filings, the Ad Hoc Committee and the Debtors and their shareholders agreed to (the "Settlement Structure"), which was reduced to writing in a Term Sheet filed on October 8, 2019 (the "Term Sheet"), and entered into a reimbursement agreement (the "Prepetition Reimbursement Agreement").

7. On October 29, 2019, the Debtors' filed the Motion to Assume the Prepetition Reimbursement Agreement with the Ad Hoc Committee, and to Pay the Fees and Expenses of the Ad Hoc Committee's Professionals (the "Fee Assumption Motion") [Docket No. 394].

8. On December 2, 2019, the Court granted the Fee Assumption Motion by entering the Fee Assumption Order.

9. On November 24, 2020, the Debtors filed the Motion to Supplement the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Assume the Reimbursement Agreement and Pay the Fees and Expenses of the Ad Hoc Committee's Professionals [Docket No. 2030] (the "Allocation Fee Assumption Motion").

10. On November 24, 2020, Brown Rudnick provided the Court with the Notice of Filing of the Ad Hoc Committee's Allocation Fees [Docket No. 2031] seeking fees of $1,190,824.50 for the period from the Petition Date through September 30, 2020 (the "Allocation Fee Statement"). As of the date of this Application, no notice party has objected to Brown Rudnick's Allocation Fee Statement.

11. On December 22, 2020, the Court granted the Allocation Fee Assumption Motion by entering the Allocation Fee Assumption Order.

12. This is Brown Rudnick's fourth application for allowance of interim compensation for services rendered and for reimbursement of expenses. Brown Rudnick has previously provided monthly fee statements covering the period from October 1, 2020 through January 31, 2021, to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and other notices parties in accordance with the provisions of the Interim Compensation Order and the Fee Assumption Order and has received payment with respect thereto, as set forth below:

Services Rendered by Brown Rudnick During the Application Period

13. Brown Rudnick has recorded time charges in these chapter 11 cases separately for each matter as to which it has given attention during the Application Period. For purposes of this Application, the services rendered have been segregated into twelve (12) categories, as follows:<sup>6</sup>

- a. Assets Analysis and Recovery
- b. Assumption and Rejection of Leases
- c. Business Operations
- d. Case Administration
- e. Claims Analysis
- f. Employment and Fee Applications
- g. Emergency Financing
- h. Litigation – Contested Matters, Adversary Proceedings and Automatic Stay
- i. Meetings and Communications with Ad Hoc Committee & Creditors
- j. Non-Working Travel
- k. Plan and Disclosure Statement
- l. Intercreditor Allocation

14. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a narrative description of each project category and a schedule setting forth a description of the project category utilized in these chapter 11 cases, which the total number of hours expended by the attorneys and paraprofessionals of Brown Rudnick by project category and aggregate fees associated with each category referenced above in paragraph 11.

<sup>6</sup> In accordance with the Fee Assumption Order, Brown Rudnick has separately recorded work performed related to allocation of value among the Debtors' creditors, and, to the best of its knowledge, Brown Rudnick has not included time relating to such allocation in the Application Period.

Disbursements

15. Brown Rudnick has disbursed $2,623.47 as expenses incurred and recorded in providing professional services during the Application Period. None of these expensed exceeds the maximum rate set by the Guidelines. These charges are intended to cover Brown Rudnick's direct costs, which costs are not incorporated into Brown Rudnick's hourly fees. Only clients who actually use services of the types for which reimbursement is sought are separately charged for such service.

16. Brown Rudnick respectfully submits that the actual expenses incurred in providing professional services for which reimbursement is sought in this Application were reasonable and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Ad Hoc Committee in accordance with the Fee Assumption Order.

The Requested Compensation Should be Allowed

17. The Fee Assumption Order and Allocation Fee Assumption Order provides that Brown Rudnick's reasonable and documented fees and expenses shall be subject mutatis mutandis, to the procedures with respect to the authorization of payment of the fees and expenses of the professionals of the Debtors and the UCC as set forth in the Interim Compensation Order. Therefore, while this Application is not strictly subject to sections 331 and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, we are guided by such provisions in making this Application. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of Section 330 to govern a court's award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 330, 331.

18. Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factor, including:

- a. the time spent on such services,
- b. the fees charged for such services,
- c. whether the services were necessary to the administration of or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of a case under this title;
- d. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed, and
- e. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U. S. C. § 330(a)(3).

19. As set forth in greater detail below, Brown Rudnick respectfully submits that it has satisfied the requirements of the Fee Assumption Order and section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code as they may be applied to the Application through the Fee Assumption Order. The services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were necessary for the adequate representation of the Ad Hoc Committee, and in all respects consistent with the Reimbursement Agreement, the Fee Assumption Motion and in furtherance of the Ad Hoc Committee's duties under the Settlement Structure and Term Sheet. Brown Rudnick's request for compensation is reflective of a reasonable and appropriate amount of time expended in performing such services commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problem, issue, or task involved. As described in the Fee Assumption Motion and in supportive filings made therewith, Brown Rudnick was and continues to be committed to performing these services without unnecessary duplication of effort by: (1) professionals employed by Brown Rudnick; or (2) other professionals employed by the Ad Hoc Committee. The compensation sought by Brown Rudnick is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, Brown Rudnick's monthly fees are comparable with other similarly qualified legal advisors appearing in this and other chapter 11 cases. For all of the foregoing reasons, Brown Rudnick respectfully requests that the Court grant this Application.

Supplemental Disclosures Required by UST Guidelines

20. Pursuant to Section C.3 of the UST Guidelines, Brown Rudnick's hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable to the hourly rates charged in complex chapter 11 cases by comparably skilled bankruptcy attorneys. In addition, Brown Rudnick's hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable to the rates charged by the firm, and by comparably skilled practitioners in other firms, for complex corporate and litigation matters, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required. By way of example, Brown Rudnick's blended hourly rates for attorneys and paraprofessionals for all sections of the firm, excluding the Restructuring section, for the prior calendar year were set forth on the attached Exhibit E.

21. The following statements address the information required pursuant to Section C.5 of the UST Guidelines:

- a. During the Application Period, Brown Rudnick did not agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, its standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for service pertaining to this engagement, except as described herein.
- b. The fees sought in this Application are not more than 10% higher as compared to the budget provided to the Debtors. The budget with respect to the Application Period is discussed more fully below.

- c. None of the professionals included in this Fee Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographical location of the bankruptcy case.
- d. This Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices.
- e. This Application does not include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information.

22. Additionally, on January 11, 2021 Brown Rudnick filed its Fifteenth Monthly Fee Statement, wherein it disclosed that it had increased its hourly rates charged by its professionals pursuant to its ordinary annual review process.

23. With respect to the use of a budget and staffing plan as suggested in Section C.6 of the UST Guidelines, Brown Rudnick has, contemporaneous herewith, provided a general budget to the Debtors and identified the core team of professionals that worked on various projects with the assistance of other professionals as the case needs dictated. A copy of the budget and staffing plan that provided to the Debtors is attached hereto as Exhibit F. Prior to the circulation of this general budget, Brown Rudnick provided a non-itemized budget to the Debtors regarding the period covered by this Application. Brown Rudnick confirms that the fees sought in this Application are not more than 10% higher as compared to the non-itemized budget. A prospective estimate budget for the next interim fee period shall be provided to the Debtors.

24. Brown Rudnick has not previously applied for payment of fees or reimbursement of any disbursement during these cases, except for the monthly fee statements it has submitted and filed with the Court and those pursuant to the Allocation Fee Assumption Order. Brown Rudnick does not hold a retainer in respect of its services as co-counsel to the Ad Hoc Committee.

25. In accordance with Section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2016(a), no agreement or understanding exists between Brown Rudnick and any other persons for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with these cases.

26. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been or will be made by Brown Rudnick.

27. The undersigned has reviewed the requirements of Local Rule 2016-2 and certified that this Application complies with that Local Rule.

28. Notice of this Application has been provided in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order. Brown Rudnick submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

29. Brown Rudnick reserves all rights and claims. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Brown Rudnick reserves its rights to submit future monthly fee applications, interim fee applications, and final fee applications, including, without limitation, fee applications seeking final allowance of all amounts sought to be paid or reimbursed herein and in respect of any amounts held back pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order or otherwise.

“Concluded on following page”

WHEREFORE, Brown Rudnick respectfully requests (i) interim allowance of compensation for professional services rendered as counsel for the Ad Hoc Committee in the amount of $2,750,490.50 in fees for the period of October 1, 2020 through January 31, 2021 and the Allocation Fees, (ii) and interim allowance of reimbursement of actual and necessary disbursements incurred and recorded by Brown Rudnick in the amount of $2,623.47.

H. Intercreditor Allocation

Brown Rudnick was intimately involved in all stages of Phase 1 negotiation and mediation. As the Court knows, the agreements resulting from Phase 1, included, first, an agreement on the allocation between the Non-Federal Public Claimants, including States, cities, counties and other local governments, and federally recognized Tribes. Brown Rudnick played an integral role in fashioning that agreement, paying particular attention to the needs of local governments and tribes. During and after the successful conclusion of the inter-governmental allocation negotiations, Brown Rudnick assisted the Ad Hoc Committee in facilitating resolutions with the various other public creditor groups. Brown Rudnick's work included hundreds of hours of conference calls inter-committee and between creditor groups and dozens of hours of the drafting the terms and documents necessary to document the various settlements. Among other specific projects, Brown Rudnick leveraged its expertise in mass tort bankruptcies to develop materials for negotiations with the private creditor groups. Additionally, Brown Rudnick worked closely with experts to develop the damage models for local governmental claims. Brown Rudnick also worked closely to address issues with representatives of the federal government that were connected to the various inter-creditor negotiations. The importance and success of the intercreditor allocation work was described at length in the Debtors' Motion to Supplement Order Authorizing the Debtors to Assume the Reimbursement Agreement and Pay the Fees and Expenses of the Ad Hoc Committee's Professionals, [Docket No. 2030].
